

WINTER DAYS ON FLORIDA COAST

Nassau Season to Start Latter Part of Month

Royal Victoria to Open for
Dec. 27—Many Reservations
at the Hotels.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
NASSAU, B. I., Dec. 17.—Nassau, after being until last season "off the social map" during the war, has regained its former prestige, and the present season will open with the opening of the Royal Victoria on December 27. The Porcupine Club will welcome a few new members, and its bathing beach is just west of that of the hotels on Hog Island, while east is the little pavilion which was built by Mr. and Mrs. Griswold Thompson of New York. The official life at Government House includes many balls and garden parties of the true British sort, and with the number of English and Canadian people there, Nassau assumes a cosmopolitan character.

This season, the West Indian and South American cruises will make Nassau a port of call, stopping there that the tourists may have a glimpse of the island and its charms, so that this will be the signal for many entertainments in their honor, as well as dinners and teas at the Colonial, Royal Victoria, the Porcupine Club and the New Bahama Club.

Lady Williams-Taylor of Montreal sailed on December 8 to open her house for the winter, and expects to entertain many guests, including her daughter, Mrs. Frank Duff Frazier of New York, and others.

Among those from New York who will arrive at the Colonial and Royal Victoria for their openings are Mr. Benjamin Green and party of six who come for the opening of the Royal Victoria; Mr. John Nye, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crittenden who remain during the entire season; Mr. H. H. Hathaway, Mr. E. M. Bowman and Miss Bowman, all at the Royal Victoria. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bowers, Mr. H. M. Baldwin, all of New York; also Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vichus of Rochester, Mr. H. H. Clarkson of Newburgh, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Benedict of Brooklyn and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Arnold of Albany.

The usual number of golf events, tennis and court golf tournaments and pony races have been arranged, making an attractive season of sport. Mr. and Mrs. John McCutcheon of Chicago, who own one of the small islands in the Bahamas not far from Nassau, pay frequent visits to the resort and also have friends with them from time to time.

Winter Sports for Holidays in Quebec

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
QUEBEC, P. Q., Dec. 17.—Yuletide in Canada, snow-mantled and diamond dusted and sparkling, is like a real old English Christmas, especially in Quebec, which combines with the carol singing of Merrie England the midnight mass with its attendant ceremonies and music at the old French cathedral, the Basilica.

The Chateau Frontenac in Quebec and the Place Viger and the Ritz-Carlton in Montreal promise to entertain many holiday parties who will go up from New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Washington to spend the holiday season in the snow white cities, to revel in the winter sports and to enjoy the Christmas cheer within, including the gay dinner and supper dances, the Christmas trees and the New Year's Eve revels.

The management of the Chateau Frontenac has taken an active part toward insuring the success of the 1921-1922 Midwinter Carnival. Its Palm Court has been converted into a curling rink and curling matches will be played between local and visiting teams during Bonspiel week, which will take place in February.

For devotees of ice skating, dancing on skates and in mocassins there is a huge skating rink. A ski jump springs from Citadel Hill and a professional has been engaged to act as instructor.

POLO AT THE FLAMINGO, MIAMI BEACH

Concert in Park Opens the Winter Season in Miami

Mr. James Deering Arrives at Villa Viscaya—Others at Their Cottages.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 17.—The Miami season opened with the first concert of Arthur Pryor's band last Sunday afternoon in the Royal Palm Park. The band will occupy the park each afternoon and evening for the next sixteen weeks.

Earlier on Sunday at the same place William Jennings Bryan spoke on "Paul's Plea for a Runaway Slave." Similar discourses will be a weekly feature during the season and these already are known as "Bryan's Bible classes."

The Royal Palm Hotel will open on January 2. Miami this year has a number of new hotels and many additional apartment houses on her list. The arrival of each train brings large numbers of tourists.

Bay Biscayne, Miami's picturesque yacht anchorage, is showing much activity. Each day finds new arrivals from the North, while craft that have been hibernating in marine garages during the summer are daily coming into commission.

Mr. James Deering arrived at Villa Viscaya this week from Chicago. His brother, Mr. Charles Deering, is with him. Also at their winter homes are Dr. and Mrs. Bertram M. Winston of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Meeker of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lee of Peekskill, N. Y.

The golf links are in full swing and amateur and professional tournaments have been started.

The first game of polo was played yesterday. Players who are here are Robert Hassler, J. C. Cooley, Carl Fisher, Carl Crawford, George Miller and George W. Browne.

Amusement Pier to Be Constructed at St. Petersburg

One Thousand New Houses
Built at Resort—Many Early Arrivals.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Dec. 17.—One thousand new houses have been built this year in order to give the winter visitors comfortable accommodation.

With more than 100 members of the Rotary and Civic clubs acting as team captains, the Chamber of Commerce launched its annual campaign this week to carry on its Greater St. Petersburg propaganda.

Plans are now under way for the construction of a concrete amusement pier at St. Petersburg that will cost between $250,000 and $500,000.

Among the early season sojourners who have arrived here are Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes of White Plains, N. Y.; Mrs. W. H. Orr and children of Poughkeepsie, Mrs. S. H. Keyes, Belleville, N. Y.; Mrs. A. K. Hall, Adams, N. Y.; Mrs. John P. Schmale, Brooklyn; Mrs. Anna M. Atkins, Freehold, N. J.; Mrs. Pannie Smith, Mrs. Edna L. Woodruff, Southington; Mrs. James E. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Westling, Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Stone, Mount Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wood, Brooklyn; William H. Lampton, New York; Mrs. J. W. Scott, Bay Side, L. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bagbia, Buffalo; Mrs. A. J. Williams, Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. William A. Miller, Lovellville, Mrs. Emma June, Waterport; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Willis, Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaefer, New York; Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson, Freeport, L. I.; Miss C. Manderlee and Mr. Fred Manderlee, Railway, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Little, Albany.

Also Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Murphy, Miss June Murphy, Morristown; Miss Jane

Gowns Worn by Smart Americans

Feather ornaments are growing in popularity and many women are buying the ornamental combs set with bright plumage.

Strips of pearl embroidery are used lavishly on some of the evening frocks designed for matrons. Sometimes a single strip will extend from the top of the low neck line to below the bottom of the skirt line.

In an elaborate evening gown of chiffon brocade the design of the bodice is picked out in beads to form a band about the bottom of the skirt and across the front of the bodice.

Although gray has had its day and will not be pushed as a popular color for autumn, some of the smartest frocks and wraps selected by discriminating women for autumn are of gray.
